

Referencing data in publications: principles, policy, and practice

Wednesday, 28 October 2015, 10.30am-4pm
Jaeger Room, The Shine Dome, 15 Gordon St, Canberra

Convened by:

- The Australian Academy of Science through The National Committee for Data in Science
- CODATA, the Committee for Data in Science and Technology of the International Council for Science
- Australian National Data Service

10:00	Welcome coffee
10:30	Welcome from National Committee for Data in Science and ANDS Dr Ross Wilkinson, ANDS Framing the discussion and global context Dr Simon Hodson, CODATA, International Council for Science : Committee on Data for Science and Technology
10:45	The funder perspective What role for research data in responsible excellent and impactful research? Prof Aidan Byrne, Australian Research Council
11:00	The researcher perspective I How do we use data in publications in my discipline? Prof Rob Harcourt, Marine Science Prof Simon Easteal, Human Genomics Prof Matthew Gray & Dr Steve McEachern, Social Science Followed by panel discussion
12:00	The researcher perspective II How do we use data in publications in my discipline? Dr Julia Miller, Linguistics Dr Sam Banks & Dr Dan Rosauer, Ecosystems Science Followed by panel discussion

12:45	Lunch
13:30	The global perspective What are global trends for data in journal publications? Dr Simon Hodson, CODATA, International Council for Science: Committee on Data for Science and Technology
13:45	The publisher perspective The data behind the publication, what can a publisher do? Panel discussion including: Mr Iain Hrynaszkiewicz, Nature Publishing Group Mr Andrew Stammer, CSIRO Publishing Ms Deb Wyatt & Mr Simon Goudie, Wiley Publishing
14:15	The institution's perspective Referencing research data for research integrity and research impact? Panel discussion including: Prof Ginny Barbour, Committee on Publication Ethics Dr Douglas Robertson, ANU Research Office Ms Roxanne Missingham, ANU Library Dr Xanthe Wells, CSIRO Science Excellence & Research Quality
14:45	Break
15:00	Next steps Where to next? Meeting Chair, Dr Ross Wilkinson Meeting delegates jointly identify opportunities, obstacles, next steps, report, action items
16:00	Meeting adjourns